

HyGear Info Session

Hosted by the Ecological Engineering Student Society

February 26 | 6-7 PM | GILM 234

What's in it for you?

- > Meet Abraham Mooney, P.E. – Business Development Manager at HyGear, specializing in low-carbon hydrogen and climate change solutions
- > Career Insights & Networking – Learn about HyGear's mission and the exciting opportunities available
- > FREE FOOD!
- > Open to all Engineering Majors

HyGear makes reliable, affordable, on-site, and on-demand (bio)hydrogen accessible. As a leading provider of hydrogen technology, they focus on sustainable solutions, carbon capture, and liquid CO<sub>2</sub> production. Be part of a company driving transformative change in clean energy!

Register for this event now!

