Gilmore Hall Student Showcase Bulletin Board

At BEE, we love to showcase all the hard work that our students are putting into their academics and careers. So, we are constructing a bulletin board in Gilmore Hall that will display all of the experiences that our students have had. This may include internships, study abroad, or research programs.

Please fill out this survey to be featured on the bulletin board in Gilmore

Hall: https://oregonstate.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_5nxT9JQ2haY5odU

This form will ask if you want to submit any photos, and to do so you must submit a photo release form: OSU-Model-Release-2021-Short.pdf

You can either submit the form through the survey, or bring it in person to GILM116.

Jobs and Internships and Career Events

The FST Consumer Sensory lab is recruiting for taste testers: Food Science and Technology Center for Sensory and Consumer Behavior Research is seeking taste testers to participate in industry-sponsored consumer studies. Incentives to participate start around $10 and you'll get paid to try various food, beverage and personal care products. If you are interested in joining our pool of panelists, please complete the brief survey through the link here and email sensory.lab@oregonstate.edu with any questions.

Getting a Dam Job: Need help creating a resume, cover letter or government application that stands out? Wondering how to gain experience in your dream field when you're already working a full-time job? Guided sessions include a range of Buddhist to mindfulness practices. Register for a class, purchase passes, or apply for an OSU Undergraduate Scholarship. Contact us.

Resources

Peer Tutoring: The College of Engineering and College of Science offer free peer tutoring for a wide variety of courses. Check this webpage for more information and schedules - <https://engineering.oregonstate.edu/current-students/academic-support>.

Printing: The College of Engineering Information Technology no longer offers poster printing services. Large format printing requests should be directed to the OSU Media Hub. Students are allowed to print one poster per assignment, conference, research project, etc. If you're planning on utilizing this service, then remember to submit your requests in advance since printing requests have a 48-hour lead time.

Free student contraceptive care: Want free contraceptive care? Oregon ContraceptiveCare (CCare) is a program funded through a grant from the Centers for Medicaid Services and the Oregon Department of Human Services that allows Student Health Services (SHS) to provide free reproductive health care and contraceptive services to OSU students with certain income criteria. Most students qualify. Sign up for CCare by calling SHS at 541-737-9140.

OSU Assist: Mobile Crisis Response OSU Assist is a multi-disciplinary support team that provides compassionate mobile crisis response and wraparound services for students facing mental health challenges or experiencing other forms of distress. This team brings together new personnel and existing university services to support students facing challenges. By calling 911 or 541-737-7000, OSU Assist will be dispatched in crisis situations that meet certain criteria. This could include instances of suicide ideation, substance abuse issues, survivors seeking support and welfare checks. The team provides serve on the Corvallis campus from Wednesday through Sunday, 1 p.m. to 1 a.m., with hours anticipated to expand in future terms. For more information on this service, visit our website, contact Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Student Care Services Aubrie Piper or attend one of the informational sessions noted below.

Anytime Anywhere: MySSP @ OSU App

This app gives all OSU students, including Ecampus students, 24/7 access by text or phone with a licensed mental health counselor (MySSP stands for “My Student Support Program”). The app makes it easy to schedule short-term counseling appointments with the same ongoing counselor and provides educational materials covering mental health topics. Students can communicate with a counselor in five different languages (Mandarin, Cantonese, French, Spanish or English); additional language options are available upon request. Students can download the Anytime Anywhere: MySSP @ OSU and learn more about the service at beav.es/anytimeanywhere. For questions, please contact Bonnie Hemrick, Director of Mental Health Promotion.

Togetherall: A new mental health resource for OSU students. Togetherall is a safe and anonymous online community where students can share about what they are feeling and get support to improve mental health and well-being. Watch this 1-minute video to learn more: <https://youtu.be/mEt4dblejNo>. Direct students to beav.es/togetherall to join. For questions about this service: tess.websterhenry@oregonstate.edu.

Eat Free: @eatfreeosu is a Twitter account managed by the Human Services Resource Center student team. This account broadcasts information about open events on campus that also have food available. If your event is closed, but you have extra food, a message can be crafted asking students to show up at the end of your event. Event organizers can tag @eatfreeosu or call 541-737-3747 during business hours to request their event be posted on the account.
