

Are you interested in government work? Would you like to hear from government insiders about their experiences? Looking to get an insider's scoop on how to apply for local, state, and federal jobs? We have a panel of government insiders looking to share their knowledge with you!

Register to attend our final Getting a Dam Job of winter term, “What are Government Jobs Like and How Do I get one?” to gain insights into preparing for a career in government service!

When: February 28th from 5:30 – 6:30pm PT

Where: Peavy Forest Science Center #117 and virtually via Zoom.

Learn and ask questions from the following panelists:

Dr. Chante Davis, Natural Resource Management Specialist at NOAA
(OSU Alumni, Ph.D in Fisheries and Wildlife)

Kristin Preston, Assistant Public Works Director/Operations Manager at the City of Albany
(OSU Alumni, MS in Civil Engineering)

Dr. Amalia Handler, Biologist, Office of Research and Development, Pacific Ecological Systems Division at US Environmental Protection Agency

Matt Weeber, Oregon Adult Salmonid Inventory & Sampling Project - Data Analyst, and Fish Life History Analysis Project Leader at Oregon Department of Fish & Wildlife
(OSU Alumni, MS in Fisheries Science)

Joanie Schmidgall, Public Affairs Staff Office for the Siuslaw National Forest at USDA US Forest Service (OSU Alumni, MS in Forestry)

Register to attend at <https://beav.es/c3S>. We look forward to seeing you there!