

EWRG & APWA Presents the Sustainable Stormwater Symposium - September 16th-17th, 2025

Scholarships available through the Student Poster Showcase

Register by September 1st to Guarantee a Spot!

The Oregon Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers Environment and Water Resources Group (ASCE-EWRG) and the Oregon Chapter of the American Public Works Association (APWA) is proud to present the 10th Sustainable Stormwater Symposium in Portland, Oregon, a national green infrastructure leader. The purpose of the Symposium is to provide stormwater professionals with an elevated understanding of current sustainable stormwater planning, design, and implementation approaches.

EWRG is happy to offer scholarships to students who participate in the Student Poster Showcase! Posters can be on a large variety of topics, including stormwater science, water resources, environmental science, and engineering. Find a list of topics on the Call for Abstracts on the Symposium Website. Posters will be ranked by symposium attendees:
